 Finest Work! Lowest Prices.

W. Penley and daughter, Angnewood, spent the day with E. Barrows.

Foster has sold his dry wood to the other, the ice man, and is hauling it back. Penley has got four young deer.

Sam Bumpus is learning to play a violin.

"The settler in," said a grocer, yesterday. "That's the fourth customer we've had today because I did not buy any bread." "I'll order some at once," said E. M. Penley is improving in health.

Foster has sold his large oven to a boy.

Penley has lost a valuable cow. His are thick but not humpers. Della saw one within two rods of the jail.
